SALOON RECEIPTS FALLING OFF

Men and Women Gladly Testify to God's Wonderful Love and Mercy—A Saloon Keeper's Complaint That the Receipts at the Bar are Much Lighter Than They Formerly Were.

The usual song and prayer service held sway last night, as the people came surging into the rink. Reverend Whitehead led the choir for the time being, Weeden taking a rest, in order that he might pay more particular attention to solos. Reverend Calhoun, of Yellow creek, led in an eloquent petition to a throne of grace, asking for a warm blessing on East Liverpool and her citizens. Mrs. Ida Watkins presided at the organ. Miss Ted Brooks at the piano, with Mills Bennett sounding forth praises on the cornet. There was another great crowd present, and one could well believe the story of the East Liverpool saloon keeper as follows, when the collector came around for cash:

"No, I have no money for you today, and I don't know when I will have. The money that used to come over the bar is going up to that infernal rink, and I'll be confounded glad when the meetings are over."

Schiverea asked for testimonials for Jesus, and men and women, young and old, all over the great audience, in short and appropriate words, full of intense feeling, thanked God for his wonderful love and mercy in taking them out of darkness and sin, into the marvelous light and liberty which Christ bought for them with his most precious blood, shed on calvary's mount. Rev. McKee, of Madison, then led in a short prayer, after which the offering was taken.

"The 14th chapter and 17th verse of St. Luke: 'Come, for all things are now ready.' That blessed word 'come,' is found all through the Bible, from beginning to end: from first to last book it is 'come, come, come.' This invitation is from the infinite to the finite, from God to man, and it embraces everyone; those who love and serve the Master and those who do not. In the first book in the Bible is an invitation to a man and his entire family to come unto God and unto safety. Noah and his family came into the ark at God's invitation. It was an ark of salvation to that family. Since that time there has been a new ark builded; it is the ark of the covenant, and our God is ever crying out to us, 'come, come, come.' Bless his holy name. I don't believe in divorces. Those who have been united in marriage under God's holy ordinances, should not be separated by any power on earth. They should be united on earth and united in heaven. Man and woman married here ought to be married up there. The family ties cemented here below, should not be severed up above. Parents and children should be united here in the bonds of Christian love, and they should meet as one common family in heaven. The awful thought is that some of the members of the family will be lost and some saved."

"I went to a friend of mine in reference to his soul's salvation, and he made reply that his wife did enough praying for the entire family. I then put the question to him plainly: 'Do you mean to say that your wife can save your soul?' To this he answered: 'Oh, no; that rests with myself. But I have ample time to attend to the matter. I'll look to it after while; but wife can do all the praying necessary at this time.' How many here tonight are acting in the same foolish and unreasonable manner, not taking into consideration the fact that God gives them the 'now,' and that they do not have a minute's claim on the future; trifling, trifling with their immortal souls. Oh, how many homes are unhappy and sinful today on account of the father and mother not agreeing on Christian work—Christian life, and the children, the boys and girls, go to ruin."

"I knew of a home where the father was not a Christian, while the mother was. There was constant bickering there. The couple were seated at the open fire place one night, and upon the hearth was lying the dog and cat of the household, in perfect amity. The father glanced at them as they lay and said: 'See how peaceful and harmonious they are.' The wife glanced at the picture and said: 'Yes, but tie them together and you will find a different state of affairs.' Oh, the sorrow of injudicious marriages—married, but not mated."

"I have sorrowful, pleading letters in my possession, received from mothers and wives of East Liverpool. One poor mother has written me six full pages about her darling boy; pages blotted by a mother's tears; and the cry of that letter is: 'Oh, Mr. Schiverea can't you do something, in the name of the Master, to help me save my boy? I can't go to heaven without my boy.' Oh, my God, what a letter that is."

"My mother, a short time before her death, called her three boys to her bedside and said: 'Boys, I dreamed I was in heaven last night, or at heaven's gate. I had laid down my cross and the angel of the Lord was holding out to me a crown, inviting me to come in; leave the cross outside and accept the crown. Boys, I had stepped inside and was about to accept the crown, when I remembered you down here below, and I told the angel that I was a widow, and that I had three darling boys on earth, and that I wanted to bring them with me to heaven, and I asked the angel to keep the gate open until I came after you, my darlings. It was only a dream, my dear, dear boys, but I would have done the same, if possible, had it been reality.' Oh, the love of our mothers, second only to the love of God."

"William Blakely, of Toronto, Canada, is my very dear friend, as was also his lovely wife, and I was often at their home. She was a loving, conscientious, Christian woman. She was taken seriously ill and the attending physician decided that she could not recover, deputed her husband to tell her the sad news. The dear wife questioned her husband about the matter, and when he hesitated, fearful that the news might hasten her demise, she said: 'Tell me, Will, dear, I have no fear of death.' Then the husband, almost broken-hearted, told her what the physician's verdict was, and the dying wife said: 'Will, dear, I'm glad you told me. I'm not afraid, dear husband, for the arms of the blessed Jesus are around and about me; give me your hand. We have been together a long time, Will, and have never been separated. We have been husband and wife for many years. Do you love your wife, Will?' Think of it, men, think of it. The poor man's heart must have been breaking as he made answer: 'Do I love you? Oh, my wife, mother of my children, God knows how tenderly I love you; love you better than I love my life.' And that loving woman pleaded: 'I know you love me, Will, for your life has shown it all the way through. Will, dear, don't let the grave separate us; meet me in heaven, my darling; meet me with Jesus.' The husband gave the promise, and then the children were sent for, bade the mother a fond goodbye, and the wife and mother, looking unutterable love upon those she was leaving here on earth, said: 'Will, dear, bring the children with you. I want you all up there.'"

"Yes, men and women of East Liverpool, God wants you all up there. He wants you with a great longing. Listen to his own precious words: 'For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.' Men, you can make a heaven here on earth, even before you go to heaven above. A happy, Christian home, with husband and wife agreeing upon the plan of Salvation, and doing their utmost to live Christian lives; there you can find a heaven upon earth."

"I met a father and son together in the city. They were talking in my presence as to how they would spend the evening, and father said: 'My boy, you are at liberty to go where you please, and enjoy yourself in your own way. I would have liked very much to have had you go with me, but you can do as you desire.' The son turned to his father and said: 'Father, you know where I best enjoy myself. I'd rather accompany you, and be with you in your enjoyment and pleasure, than to go anywhere by myself, or in the company of others.' And that father turned to me with his face aglow and said: 'What do you think of that, Schiverea? We have a happy Christian home, and this is the outcome of the love and confidence which is engendered there.' Ah, men, that father had a right to be proud of his son. Occasionally you will find the son or daughter of a Christian home bring sorrow to the hearthstone; but in 99 cases in 100 you will find the children of true Christian parents following in their footsteps."

"A young man accepted Christ in one of our meetings and I went to him and asked what influence had brought him to do the right thing. He said that it was the influence of his Christian home. He was far from that home, had dropped into the meeting, listened to the arguments in favor of right, thought of the joy he could bring to father and mother, of the good to himself, and then and there decided for Christ."

SELECTED A CAPTAIN

Company E Had a Good Turnout.

IT IS NOW CAPTAIN WILL HILL

A Caucus Held and a Selection Determined Upon by the Company—The Colonel Approves of the Choice, and Wires Pleasure—Capt. Hobbs Present.

There was a good turnout at the meeting of Company E at the armory in the city hall last night, and after careful and mature deliberation, Attorney Will Hill was chosen to command the company. Captain Hobbs was present, and upon request, addressed the boys. He impressed upon them the importance of taking immediate action towards the selection of a captain; the colonel was losing patience with the company for the lack of interest that its members displayed, and the captain deemed it advisable that some tangible course be pursued at once, lest the company be mustered out of service by the colonel. Sergeant Terrance followed, and made a few brief remarks, and the company resolved itself into a caucus to complete the preliminaries involved in the work of choosing a captain. The name of Will Hill, who has been a prospective candidate for the position, was mentioned and met with the universal approval of the members. A rising vote was called for and Mr. Hill received the nomination unanimously. There was no opposition and the election of the nominee was then proceeded with, the result being that not a dissenting voice was raised against Mr. Hill, and, upon motion, the secretary of the meeting was instructed to cast the electoral vote for the entire company, making Mr. Hill captain. Colonel Gyger was immediately apprised of what action had been taken and he wired back his complete approval of the company's choice. A committee was appointed to wait upon Mr. Hill and inform him officially of his election as captain of the company. They returned, bringing with them the gentleman, who in a few well chosen words thanked the boys for the honor that had been conferred upon him, and said he would take charge of the company and use his utmost endeavors to make it successful.

JETHRO STREET

Occupied the Attention of the Board of Improvement.

The board of improvements met last night in the mayor's office, with all members present except Outhbert. There was very little business to be done, and the session was a short one, the only thing occupying the attention of the board being the improvement of Jethro road.

A motion was passed ordering the engineer to draw up a resolution declaring it necessary to improve Jethro street by laying a sidewalk on one side of the street from the Horn switch to the trestle in the West End. The resolution will be presented to council at its next meeting, and should not meet with defeat.

This is an improvement that has been needed for a number of years, as the board walks that are laid every year by the property owners along that street become worn out in a short time, and in the main it will be cheaper for them to lay a sidewalk than it will be to keep on buying board walks.

There is scarcely a thoroughfare outside the heart of the city that has the amount of traffic in a year that this street has, and although this is not the improvement that many of the residents of the West End wish for, it will only be a short time until the entire roadway is graded and paved. As there was no other business before the board, they adjourned to meet again next week.

SOON TO BUILD.

The New Church Will be Erected as Soon as the Weather Permits.

The German Lutheran church will commence the erection of a new church as soon as the weather moderates. The members of the church have been untiring in their efforts to raise sufficient funds to meet the expense involved, and a neat sum has been obtained—enough to justify the building of the new edifice in a short time. The present place of worship is not large enough to comfortably seat the congregation.

DANCED ON SUNDAY.

A Few Members of a Club Break the Sabbath Day.

A few members of a certain Market street club, with their friends, were observed by passersby on Sabbath night, engaged in waltzing. It is indeed sad when young men will so far forget themselves as to break the Sabbath day in such a manner as this. The blinds of the club room were not even drawn, and it looked as though the young men wanted it to be known that they had no respect whatever for the Lord's day. If these members have no respect for the Sabbath day themselves, the police should take the matter in hand and teach them some.

AFTER THE TRUSTEES.

Mrs. Saunders Wants Her Boy Returned From Fairmount.

Mrs. Saunders, whose son was sent to Fairmount home about a year ago, called at the trustees' office today and asked them to intercede in her behalf and have the boy returned to her. She says that she has money enough saved up now to take proper care of the child, and that she is worrying lest he may be given out to some family to raise. Mrs. Saunders came here from the west over a year since, leaving her husband there, whom, she says, has written to her and declared his intention of selling his property and locating here. When asked by the trustees how much the property was worth, Mrs. Saunders innocently answered that her husband had received an offer of $15 for it, and that she guessed he would dispose of it at that figure and then come on here.

TOWNSHIP TRUSTEES.

Items of Interest Gathered at Their Office Today.

Mary Johnson, the Jefferson county girl who was confined at the hospital in the Ferguson & Hill building with an attack of typhoid fever, was discharged last week, and instead of being sent to her parents, secured employment here and went to work.

W. C. Wallace, editor of the Times of Restitution, who has been sick at the township trustees' hospital, being unable to care for himself, is now convalescent, but is still taking his meals at the hospital.

Lizzie Spring, the girl of whom mention was made in the NEWS REVIEW of Saturday, has secured employment until such time as arrangements can be made to send her to her home in England.

DIED AT NOON.

Mrs. Ann Colclough Passed Away Today.

Mrs. Ann Colclough died at her home at the head of Forest street at 12:30 o'clock today, aged 76 years. Her death was caused by a complication of diseases and old age. The old lady was taken ill on New Year's day, since which time she has never left her bed. She bore her affliction with strong, Christian fortitude, and her friends have the satisfaction of knowing that she has passed to a better world beyond. Deceased leaves a family of 12 children, all grown, to mourn her loss. The time of the funeral has not yet been set.

IMPROVE THE OHIO.

A Bill Introduced by Senator Quay Yesterday.

Senator Quay yesterday introduced a bill in the senate, which in common with other matters said:

Resolved, That the secretary of war shall ascertain the cost and practicability of the improvement of the Ohio river by movable dams or otherwise, so that there shall be a depth of six feet at any point of said river, and that he shall make a report on the first Monday of December, 1897.

If the resolution is passed it will be hailed with delight by the rivermen, as they want something definite done pretty soon.

THE BARBERS MEET

And Discuss the Apprenticeship Question Last Night.

The Barbers union met last night and talked and acted on the apprenticeship question. Application for membership was made by a barber who is the proprietor of a shop, but who has not yet served his apprenticeship at the business. Therefore admittance to the union was denied the applicant, as it is necessary to become a journeyman before the union will give its official sanction to the conducting of a shop.

The Opening Date.

The Eclipse football team will play their first game in this city on Saturday, Sept. 26, with the Allegheny college team, of Meadville, Pa. Arrangements have also been made to play the Mount Pleasant Institute, at Mount Pleasant, Pa., on Saturday, Oct. 10.

Will Banquet.

The Cosmopolitan club will in the near future give a banquet. The event will be a reception to the new members, recently taken in, by the former members of the club.

CAN VOTE IN THE CITY

The School Board Takes Decisive Action.

THE JURISDICTION IS ENLARGED

The School Districts Outside of the Corporate Limits May Vote in the Respective Wards in the City—A Short Session Last Night.

The board of education met last night with all the members present except Mr. Owen, who is out of the city.

An important move was made. A resolution, drawn up in full conformity with the law, was presented by the secretary and unanimously adopted by the board, whereby the school districts in the township, beyond the limits of the city, are permitted to vote in the respective wards that run out in that direction. Heretofore the township vote on the election of school board in the districts outside of the city limits had to be cast at a designated point in those districts. Under the new ruling the jurisdiction of the school board has been extended so that all residing in any part of the township may cast their ballots in the city. Following is a full text of the resolution:

"Be it resolved, That the part of the common school district lying outside of the corporate limits of the city of East Liverpool be sub-divided and attached for voting purposes, in the manner following, to wit: All that portion of said territory lying to the east of the Calcutta road is hereby attached to the First ward of said city, as said ward is now indicated."

"All that portion of said territory lying to the west of Calcutta road, and to the east of California hollow road, is hereby attached to the Second ward of said city, as said ward is now indicated."

"All the balance of said territory, not included in the divisions above named, is hereby attached to the Fourth ward of said city, as said ward is now indicated."

After the reading of the resolutions the board unanimously voted to adopt it, and sent a copy to the supervisor of elections. The resolution will go into effect almost immediately, so as to specify where the people of the suburban districts will vote in the coming election. The law makes it imperative that this edict shall be published in the press six days prior to election before becoming a law.

The following bills were acted upon favorably: The Greenwood School Supply company, $11.25; Sheldon & Co., $14; Andy Ratray, hauling, $4.16; Janitor's supplies, $5.15.

Mr. Golding then reported that he had written to the Smead company, and made a request to send one of their men here; the company had agreed, and an amicable settlement with the board will be arrived at.

Mr. Taylor then arose, and in a few brief remarks paid his respects to the NEWS REVIEW, which are duly acknowledged, and credit given for the same. Mr. Taylor evidently does not look with any degree of favor on the matter of right advocated by this paper in resenting the action of the board on the Bible-in-the-school question. The meeting then adjourned.

Touched the Wire.

Lineman Henry Deldrick had a narrow escape from receiving a heavy charge of electricity. He was making connections with the telephone wires on Sixth street, and he inadvertently, with a pair of pliers that he held in his hand, touched the feed wire of the electric street car line. Simultaneously with the contact of the current, the pliers were wrenched from the lineman's hands and dropped to the ground below, and when picked up it was seen that the electric fluid had melted the handle of the instrument.

A Strange Coincidence.

In the death of the late Allison Fowler, of Spring street, a strange coincidence occurred. Mrs. Fowler was married a second time, and her first husband was carried off by the same disease and at precisely the same hour of the day that her second husband died, two years intervening between the date of the two deaths. The funeral of Mr. Fowler takes place tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. Reverends Taggart and Lee will conduct burial services.

New Phones.

The telephone company are placing many new phones in this city this week. They have in all 19 new phones to put in, but they have not all arrived as yet.

Born

To Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schneidmiller, of Calcutta road—a son.

Company E Had a Good Turnout.

A Caucus Held and a Selection Determined Upon by the Company—The Colonel Approves of the Choice, and Wires Pleasure—Capt. Hobbs Present.

There was a good turnout at the meeting of Company E at the armory in the city hall last night, and after careful and mature deliberation, Attorney Will Hill was chosen to command the company. Captain Hobbs was present, and upon request, addressed the boys. He impressed upon them the importance of taking immediate action towards the selection of a captain; the colonel was losing patience with the company for the lack of interest that its members displayed, and the captain deemed it advisable that some tangible course be pursued at once, lest the company be mustered out of service by the colonel. Sergeant Terrance followed, and made a few brief remarks, and the company resolved itself into a caucus to complete the preliminaries involved in the work of choosing a captain. The name of Will Hill, who has been a prospective candidate for the position, was mentioned and met with the universal approval of the members. A rising vote was called for and Mr. Hill received the nomination unanimously. There was no opposition and the election of the nominee was then proceeded with, the result being that not a dissenting voice was raised against Mr. Hill, and, upon motion, the secretary of the meeting was instructed to cast the electoral vote for the entire company, making Mr. Hill captain. Colonel Gyger was immediately apprised of what action had been taken and he wired back his complete approval of the company's choice. A committee was appointed to wait upon Mr. Hill and inform him officially of his election as captain of the company. They returned, bringing with them the gentleman, who in a few well chosen words thanked the boys for the honor that had been conferred upon him, and said he would take charge of the company and use his utmost endeavors to make it successful.

JETHRO STREET

Occupied the Attention of the Board of Improvements.

The board of improvements met last night in the mayor's office, with all members present except Outhbert. There was very little business to be done, and the session was a short one, the only thing occupying the attention of the board being the improvement of Jethro road.

A motion was passed ordering the engineer to draw up a resolution declaring it necessary to improve Jethro street by laying a sidewalk on one side of the street from the Horn switch to the trestle in the West End. The resolution will be presented to council at its next meeting, and should not meet with defeat.

This is an improvement that has been needed for a number of years, as the board walks that are laid every year by the property owners along that street become worn out in a short time, and in the main it will be cheaper for them to lay a sidewalk than it will be to keep on buying board walks.

There is scarcely a thoroughfare outside the heart of the city that has the amount of traffic in a year that this street has, and although this is not the improvement that many of the residents of the West End wish for, it will only be a short time until the entire roadway is graded and paved. As there was no other business before the board, they adjourned to meet again next week.

SOON TO BUILD.

The New Church Will be Erected as Soon as the Weather Permits.

The German Lutheran church will commence the erection of a new church as soon as the weather moderates. The members of the church have been untiring in their efforts to raise sufficient funds to meet the expense involved, and a neat sum has been obtained—enough to justify the building of the new edifice in a short time. The present place of worship is not large enough to comfortably seat the congregation.

DANCED ON SUNDAY.

A Few Members of a Club Break the Sabbath Day.

A few members of a certain Market street club, with their friends, were observed by passersby on Sabbath night, engaged in waltzing. It is indeed sad when young men will so far forget themselves as to break the Sabbath day in such a manner as this. The blinds of the club room were not even drawn, and it looked as though the young men wanted it to be known that they had no respect whatever for the Lord's day. If these members have no respect for the Sabbath day themselves, the police should take the matter in hand and teach them some.

AFTER THE TRUSTEES.

Mrs. Saunders Wants Her Boy Returned From Fairmount.

Mrs. Saunders, whose son was sent to Fairmount home about a year ago, called at the trustees' office today and asked them to intercede in her behalf and have the boy returned to her. She says that she has money enough saved up now to take proper care of the child, and that she is worrying lest he may be given out to some family to raise. Mrs. Saunders came here from the west over a year since, leaving her husband there, whom, she says, has written to her and declared his intention of selling his property and locating here. When asked by the trustees how much the property was worth, Mrs. Saunders innocently answered that her husband had received an offer of $15 for it, and that she guessed he would dispose of it at that figure and then come on here.

TOWNSHIP TRUSTEES.

Items of Interest Gathered at Their Office Today.

Mary Johnson, the Jefferson county girl who was confined at the hospital in the Ferguson & Hill building with an attack of typhoid fever, was discharged last week, and instead of being sent to her parents, secured employment here and went to work.

W. C. Wallace, editor of the Times of Reunion, who has been sick at the township trustees' hospital, being unable to care for himself, is now convalescent, but is still taking his meals at the hospital.

Lizzie Spring, the girl of whom mention was made in the News Review of Saturday, has secured employment until such time as arrangements can be made to send her to her home in England.

DIED AT NOON.

Mrs. Ann Colclough Passed Away Today.

Mrs. Ann Colclough died at her home at the head of Forest street at 12:30 o'clock today, aged 76 years. Her death was caused by a complication of diseases and old age. The old lady was taken ill on New Year's day, since which time she has never left her bed. She bore her affliction with strong, Christian fortitude, and her friends have the satisfaction of knowing that she has passed to a better world beyond. Deceased leaves a family of 12 children, all grown, to mourn her loss. The time of the funeral has not yet been set.

IMPROVE THE OHIO.

A Bill Introduced by Senator Quay Yesterday.

Senator Quay yesterday introduced a bill in the senate, which in common with other matters said:

Resolved, That the secretary of war shall ascertain the cost and practicability of the improvement of the Ohio river by movable dams or otherwise, so that there shall be a depth of six feet at any point of said river, and that he shall make a report on the first Monday of December, 1897.

If the resolution is passed it will be hailed with delight by the rivermen, as they want something definite done pretty soon.

THE BARBERS MEET

And Discuss the Apprenticeship Question Last Night.

The Barbers union met last night and talked and acted on the apprenticeship question. Application for membership was made by a barber who is the proprietor of a shop, but who has not yet served his apprenticeship at the business. Therefore admittance to the union was denied the applicant, as it is necessary to become a journeyman before the union will give its official sanction to the conducting of a shop.

The Opening Date.

The Eclipse football team will play their first game in this city on Saturday, Sept. 26, with the Allegheny college team, of Meadville, Pa. Arrangements have also been made to play the Mount Pleasant Institute, at Mount Pleasant, Pa., on Saturday, Oct. 10.

Will Banquet.

The Cosmopolitan club will in the near future give a banquet. The event will be a reception to the new members, recently taken in, by the former members of the club.

CAN VOTE IN THE CITY

The School Board Takes Decisive Action.

THE JURISDICTION IS ENLARGED

The School Districts Outside of the Corporate Limits May Vote in the Respective Wards in the City—A Short Session Last Night.

The board of education met last night with all the members present except Mr. Owen, who is out of the city.

An important move was made. A resolution, drawn up in full conformity with the law, was presented by the secretary and unanimously adopted by the board, whereby the school districts in the township, beyond the limits of the city, are permitted to vote in the respective wards that run out in that direction. Heretofore the township vote on the election of school board in the districts outside of the city limits had to be cast at a designated point in those districts. Under the new ruling the jurisdiction of the school board has been extended so that all residing in any part of the township may cast their ballots in the city. Following is a full text of the resolution:

"Be it resolved, That the part of the common school district lying outside of the corporate limits of the city of East Liverpool be sub-divided and attached for voting purposes, in the manner following, to wit: All that portion of said territory lying to the east of the Calcutta road is hereby attached to the First ward of said city, as said ward is now indicated."

"All that portion of said territory lying to the west of Calcutta road, and to the east of California hollow road, is hereby attached to the Second ward of said city, as said ward is now indicated."

"All the balance of said territory, not included in the divisions above named, is hereby attached to the Fourth ward of said city, as said ward is now indicated."

After the reading of the resolutions the board unanimously voted to adopt it, and sent a copy to the supervisor of elections. The resolution will go into effect almost immediately, so as to specify where the people of the suburban districts will vote in the coming election. The law makes it imperative that this edict shall be published in the press six days prior to election before becoming a law.

The following bills were acted upon favorably: The Greenwood School Supply company, $11.25; Sheldon & Co., $14; Andy Rattray, hauling, $4.16; lanitor's supplies, $5.15.

Mr. Golding then reported that he had written to the Smead company, and made a request to send one of their men here; the company had agreed, and an amicable settlement with the board will be arrived at.

Mr. Taylor then arose, and in a few brief remarks paid his respects to the News Review, which are duly acknowledged, and credit given for the same. Mr. Taylor evidently does not look with any degree of favor on the matter of right advocated by this paper in resenting the action of the board on the Bible-in-the-school question. The meeting then adjourned.

Touched the Wire.

Lineman Henry Deldrick had a narrow escape from receiving a heavy charge of electricity. He was making connections with the telephone wires on Sixth street, and he inadvertently, with a pair of pliers that he held in his hand, touched the feed wire of the electric street car line. Simultaneously with the contact of the current, the pliers were wrenched from the lineman's hands and dropped to the ground below, and when picked up it was seen that the electric fluid had melted the handle of the instrument.

A Strange Coincidence.

In the death of the late Allison Fowler, of Spring street, a strange coincidence occurred. Mrs. Fowler was married a second time, and her first husband was carried off by the same disease and at precisely the same hour of the day that her second husband died, two years intervening between the date of the two deaths. The funeral of Mr. Fowler takes place tomorrow afternoon at 3 o'clock. Reverends Taggart and Lee will conduct burial services.

New Phones.

The telephone company are placing many new phones in this city this week. They have in all 19 new phones to put in, but they have not all arrived as yet.

Born

To Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schneider, of Calcutta road—a son.

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., TUESDAY, MARCH 17.

For President,
WILLIAM MCKINLEY,
Of Ohio.

The strong arm of the military has
been found a necessity in Kentucky.
Governor Bradley is evidently determined not to be trifled with.

THERE is fun in Pennsylvania over
the recent political developments, and
M. S. Quay may find that all is not
lovely for him in his move for the presidency.

THE NEWS REVIEW for all the
news. While giving full particulars
of the evangelistic work going on in East Liverpool, this paper neglects no
other department, but publishes
everything worthy of notice taking place in our city.

THE fight on the school board question has ceased to be a political battle. It is now "Bible or no Bible."
Be led into wrong by no man or body
of men, no matter what his or their power or influence may be. Do your duty to the Master, and you will be
blessed in so doing.

MEN will laugh and sneer and jibe
at you, here on earth, for advocating
and standing for the Bible, God's inspired word. Let them have a care.
They are not dealing with humanity.
It will be awful if God laughs at
them in the great day of judgment. The wrath of man is as idle breath. The wrath of God is something awful to contemplate. God
will hold each one of us responsible
for our conduct respecting His holy
book.

MCKINLEY.

And now Pennsylvania is coming to
the front with delegates for our own McKinley, and M. S. Quay will be kept very busy watching that little
boom of his.

FAIR PLAY.

Fair play is a jewel, and every honorable and honest man should grant
fair play to friend or foe. John N.
Taylor stated last night, before the school board, that the News Review
had not given the board fair play, and
had not placed it in a just light before
the public at large. If John N. Taylor or any other member of the board
will show us where we have been un-
just, or guilty of unfair play respecting the board, then shall we take
pleasure in placing ourselves right
and in making the amende honorable.
Turn on the light.

SPEED THE WORK.

It is said that saloon traffic has
been very seriously affected in consequence of the evangelistic meetings
being held in this city. If this be so,
God speed the good work, and every
good man and woman should earnestly
pray that the effect may be lasting.
Dull times for the saloonist, when
work is plenty and living wages are
paid, is a sure sign that grocers, cloth-ers and business men in general are being benefitted, while happiness comes
to the home of the mechanic and
working man.

ANSWER TO GOD.

The question has been asked the News Review. "How ought I to
vote on the present issue on the Bible
question? Cannot I conscientiously
vote against the reading of the Bible,
at opening of school, by the teachers
to the pupils, and merely vote to use
the blessed book as members of the school board have advocated—as a reference book?" We do not believe that you conscientiously do so, taking
into consideration your intelligence,
and the light which God has given
you. Take the Bible to your room,
close the door against any earthly influence, bow in humble prayer before Almighty God, and then, if you can
ask God's blessing upon a ballot cast
against his inspired word, do as you
feel God directs you, always bearing
in mind the fact that God reads your
heart as an open page, and will hold
you responsible for your act in the Great Day.

RIDDLED BY MORGAN.

The Alabaman Comments on De Lome's Statement.

HE ADVOCATES CUBA'S CAUSE.

The Rebels Have an Established Government, Which Entitles Them to Recognition as Belligerents—Several Tilts
With Hale.

WASHINGTON, March 17.—The senate
has had another hour of spirited debate
on Cuba, after the early part of the day
had been given to set speeches by Mr.
Lodge on immigration, and Mr. Pugh
on silver. The Cuban discussion was mainly important in bringing out the
full reading of a statement of the Spanish side of the case by Senor Dupuy
de Lome, the Spanish minister. This
had been referred to some days ago, but
could not be made public.

However, Mr. Morgan read a letter from Secretary Olney saying the Spanish minister gave his permission for the reading of his statement. It claimed to detail the insurgent methods of guerrilla warfare, the burning of cane fields and the disorganized character of the insurgent bands. Mr. Morgan commented severely on the minister's statement. The senator had several sharp controversies with Mr. Hale over various phases of the Cuban question. During the day Mr. Elkins offered a resolution directing the committee on foreign affairs to report as to the status of the war in Cuba before a vote was taken in
the senate.

Mr. Morgan said the American people
had expressed their views on Cuban belligerency and independence by a great deluge of petitions and memorials.

Mr. Morgan read from many petitions showing the wide public feeling in behalf of Cuba. These came from city councils, G. A. R. posts, A. P. A. bodies, ministerial unions, normal
schools, boards of trade, citizens meetings, labor and trade assemblies, typographical unions, federations of labor,
etc. The individual petitions were also
very numerous.

Mr. Sherman rose to state that he was authorized to say that the house of representatives had received Cuban petitions filling a large box.

The senator next referred to Minister
Dupuy de Lome's statement received
from Secretary Olney by the committee.

Mr. Morgan said that the Spanish minister's statement had been drawn
out by Spain's desire to delay action in congress. Spain feared the United States would get in a tangling people must have a permanent capital. As a matter of fact, the senator insisted,
the insurgents had a capital, as was
shown by reports from newspaper correspondents.

Mr. Chandler added to what Mr. Morgan had said as to the insurgent capital,
that it had an actual existence and the Spanish troops had not been able to take
it.

"No," said Mr. Morgan. "Gomez and Maceo have come nearer taking Havana than the Spanish have to taking the insurgent capital."

Mr. Morgan went on to read from the Spanish minister's statement, detailing
the Cuban methods of fighting, their
failure to come out for an open fight and
the theatrical effect of their movements.

Mr. Morgan referred to the grim tragedy beneath the "theatrical effect"
mentioned by the minister. When the
senator read the minister's criticism of
the insurgent methods of burning cane-
fields he added that it was a recognized
right of war to destroy and burn property in order to cripple the enemy.

"It was done during our civil war,"
interjected Mr. Sherman.

THE USUAL BITTER TALK.

This and a Fruitless Ballot at Frankfort.
Soldiers on Guard.

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 17.—The
promised sensation in the senatorial contest flashed in the pan. Bitter talk
and a fruitless ballot tells the story and
those features have been present every day since the fight began. The scenes,
however, had a different setting and to
the dramatic persona were added about 400 blue coats from Louisville, Lexington and Frankfort. The salutary effect
of this military display does not appear
on the surface, because the reason for
its presence was apprehension and not
the existence of violence. Three companies of the state guard took up their
position on the state house grounds and
the Kentucky legislators went through picket lines to get in a tangling people must have a permanent capital. As
a matter of fact, the senator insisted,
the insurgents had a capital, as was
shown by reports from newspaper cor-
respondents.

which if flushed with victory and swollen
by a perfectly possible combination

EAST LIVERPOOL, O., TUESDAY, MARCH 17.

For President,
WILLIAM MCKINLEY,
Of Ohio.

THE strong arm of the military has
been found a necessity in Kentucky.
Governor Bradley is evidently determined not to be trifled with.

THERE is fun in Pennsylvania over
the recent political developments, and
M. S. Quay may find that all is not
lovely for him in his move for the
presidency.

THE News Review for all the
news. While giving full particulars
of the evangelistic work going on in East Liverpool, this paper neglects no
other department, but publishes
everything worthy of notice taking
place in our city.

THE fight on the school board question has ceased to be a political battle. It is now "Bible or no Bible." Believed into wrong by no man or body
of men, no matter what his or their
power or influence may be. Do your
duty to the Master, and you will be
blessed in so doing.

MEN will laugh and sneer and jibe
at you, here on earth, for advocating
and standing for the Bible, God's inspired word. Let them have a care.
They are not dealing with humanity.
It will be awful if God laughs at
them in the great day of judgment. The wrath of man is as
idle breath. The wrath of God is
something awful to contemplate. God
will hold each one of us responsible
book.

MCKINLEY.
And now Pennsylvania is coming to
the front with delegates for our own McKinley, and M. S. Quay will be
kept very busy watching that little
boom of his.

FAIR PLAY.
Fair play is a jewel, and every honorable and honest man should grant
fair play to friend or foe. John N.
Taylor stated last night, before the
school board, that the News Review
had not given the board fair play, and
had not placed it in a just light before
the public at large. If John N. Taylor or any other member of the board
will show us where we have been un-
just, or guilty of unfair play respect-
ing the board, then shall we take
pleasure in placing ourselves right
and in making the amende honorable.
Turn on the light.

SPEED THE WORK.
It is said that saloon traffic has
been very seriously affected in consequence of the evangelistic meetings
being held in this city. If this be so,
God speed the good work, and every
good man and woman should earnestly
pray that the effect may be lasting.
Dull times for the saloonist, when
work is plenty and living wages are
paid, is a sure sign that grocers, clothiers and business men in general are being benefited, while happiness comes
to the home of the mechanic and
working man.

ANSWER TO GOD.
The question has been asked the News Review, "How ought I to
vote on the present issue on the Bible
question? Cannot I conscientiously
vote against the reading of the Bible,
at opening of school, by the teachers
to the pupils, and merely vote to use
the blessed book as members of the
school board have advocated—as a reference book?" We do not believe
that you conscientiously do so, taking
into consideration your intelligence,
and the light which God has given
you. Take the Bible to your room,
close the door against any earthly influence, bow in humble prayer before Almighty God, and then, if you can
ask God's blessing upon a ballot cast
against his inspired word, do as you
feel God directs you, always bearing
in mind the fact that God reads your
heart as an open page, and will hold
you responsible for your act in the Great Day.

RIDDLED BY MORGAN.

The Alabamian Comments on De Lome's Statement.

HE ADVOCATES CUBA'S CAUSE.

The Rebels Have an Established Government, Which Entitles Them to Recognition as Belligerents—Several Tilts
With Hale.

WASHINGTON, March 17.—The senate
has had another hour of spirited debate
on Cuba, after the early part of the day
had been given to set speeches by Mr.
Lodge on immigration, and Mr. Pugh
on silver. The Cuban discussion was
mainly important in bringing out the
full reading of a statement of the Spanish side of the case by Senor Dupuy
de Lome, the Spanish minister. This
had been referred to some days ago, but
could not be made public.

However, Mr. Morgan read a letter
from Secretary Olney saying the Span-
ish minister gave his permission for the
reading of his statement. It claimed to detail the insurgent methods of guerrilla warfare, the burning of cane-fields and the disorganized character of the insurgent bands. Mr. Morgan commented severely on the minister's statement. The senator had several sharp controversies with Mr. Hale over various phases of the Cuban question. During the day Mr. Elkins offered a resolution directing the committee on foreign
affairs to report as to the status of the
war in Cuba before a vote was taken in
the senate.

Mr. Morgan said the American people
had expressed their views on Cuban
belligerency and independence by a
great deluge of petitions and memorials.
Mr. Morgan read from many petitions
showing the wide public feeling in be-
half of Cuba. These came from city
councils, G. A. R. posts, A. P. A. bodies, ministerial unions, normal
schools, boards of trade, citizens meetings, labor and trade assemblies, typographical unions, federations of labor,
etc. The individual petitions were also
very numerous.

Mr. Sherman rose to state that he was
authorized to say that the house of representatives had received Cuban petitions filling a large box.

The senator next referred to Minister
Dupuy de Lome's statement received
from Secretary Olney by the committee.
Mr. Morgan said that the Spanish
minister's statement had been drawn
out by Spain's desire to delay action in
congress. Spain feared the United States would get in a tantrum. Mr.
Morgan proceeded to read from the Spanish minister's statement and commented on it as he went along.

The statement said the insurgents had no fixed place of organization, being driven from place to place. The senator asked what permanent place our continental congress held during the revolution. It was driven about and when the British burned Washington in 1814, the members of our congress were refugees in Virginia and yet the Spanish minister raised the point that struggling people must have a permanent capital. As
a matter of fact, the senator insisted,
the insurgents had a capital, as was
shown by reports from newspaper cor-
respondents.

Mr. Chandler added to what Mr. Morgan had said as to the insurgent capital,
that it had an actual existence and the Spanish troops had not been able to take
it.

"No," said Mr. Morgan. "Gomez
and Maceo have come nearer taking Havana than the Spanish have to taking the insurgent capital."

Mr. Morgan went on to read from the Spanish minister's statement, detailing
the Cuban methods of fighting, their
failure to come out for an open fight and
the theatrical effect of their movements.

Mr. Morgan referred to the grim
tragedy beneath the "theatrical effect"
mentioned by the minister. When the
senator read the minister's criticism of
the insurgent methods of burning cane-
fields he added that it was a recognized
right of war to destroy and burn property in order to cripple the enemy.

"It was done during our civil war,"
interjected Mr. Sherman.

Morton Must Distribute Seeds.

WASHINGTON, March 17.—The senate
joint resolution directing the secretary of agriculture to purchase and distribute seeds, bulbs, etc., as has been done in preceding years, has become a law without the president's signature.
Secretary Morton refused to carry out the old law and vigorously opposed the passage of the present act.

Railroad Conductor Killed.

LANCASTER, Pa., March 17.—John C.
Cooper of Columbia, a Pennsylvania railroad freight brakeman, has been instantly killed by falling from his train near Glen Loch. His body when found was completely severed. Deceased was 40 years old and leaves a wife and three children.

THE USUAL BITTER TALK.

This and a Fruitless Ballot at Frankfort.
Soldiers on Guard.

promised sensation in the senatorial
contest flashed in the pan. Bitter talk
and a fruitless ballot tells the story and
those features have been present every
day since the fight began. The scenes,
however, had a different setting and to
the dramatic persona were added about 400 blue coats from Louisville, Lexington and Frankfort. The salutary effect
of this military display does not appear
on the surface, because the reason for
its presence was apprehension and not
the existence of violence. Three companies of the state guard took up their
position on the state house grounds and
the Kentucky legislators went through picket lines to their meeting place in the capitol. The presence of this armed force was the subject of numerous resolutions and acrimonious debate in both house before and after the joint session.

The senate, by a strict party vote, adopted a resolution reciting the action of Governor Bradley in calling out the militia, which was declared to be "without warrant of law, necessity or justification," and appointing a committee, headed by Senator Goebel, to "inquire into such contempt and breach of privilege," and to report to the senate for final action. This was adopted as a substitute for a resolution offered by Senator Bronston violently denouncing Governor Bradley and declaring the purpose of the senate to suspend all legislation while the military guard remained in possession of the capitol. The house got into a tangle over a number of resolutions offered by both sides, all of which were finally withdrawn.

At the joint session one ballot for United States senator was taken to full-fill legal requirements after the Democratic and Populist Poor had broken a quorum by refusing to respond to roll-call.

Adjutant General Collier announces that the militia will remain on duty until the legislature adjourns.

Three For McKinley, Three For Morton.

BUFFALO, March 17.—Six assembly districts of Erie county have held conventions to choose delegates to the Republican state convention. In three districts Morton delegates were chosen and in three McKinley ones were successful.

Victories For Tom Platt.

NEW YORK, March 17.—Republican primaries were held in each of the 1,392 election districts of this city last night and the results show victories for Thomas C. Platt in most of the districts.

Instructed For Morton.

LITTLE FALLS, N. Y., March 17.—The Twenty-fifth district Republican congressional convention has chosen delegates, and resolutions instructing for Morton were unanimously adopted.

Favor McKinley For President.

MILWAUKEE, March 17.—The Fourth congressional district has elected delegates to St. Louis and adopted a resolution in favor of Major McKinley for president.

THE ADVANCE INTO SOUDAN.

A Statement Made in Parliament Regarding the Proposed Movement.

LONDON, March 17.—The under secretary of state for foreign affairs, Mr.
George N. Curzon, in the house of commons, has made a statement regarding the proposed British advance into the Soudan. He pointed out the threatening Dervish advances and their danger to Egypt and intimated that the movement of Egyptian troops arose partly from a desire to aid Italy in her struggle with the Abyssinians.

Continuing Mr. Curzon said, the government was sure that all the subjects of her majesty would have the most sincere sympathy for Italy and the reverses which the latter's arms had suffered in Africa, and he expressed regret at the defeat of General Baratieri at the battle of Adowa.

Mr. Curzon then said: "At the present moment influences are at work and forces are unchanged in Central Africa,
which if flushed with victory and swollen
by a perfectly possible combination
of events, would constitute a most serious danger, not merely to Italy, Egypt or the British occupation of Egypt, but to the cause of Europe, which is the cause of civilization."

THE GOSPEL OF PEACE.

bring you any good or a shadow of profit. From a plain business standpoint it don't pay. From a common sense standpoint it is an absolute failure. God appeals to your reason. He says to you, sinner, 'come, let us reason together; if I ask you to do anything unreasonable, then will you be excusable in refusing to accede to my request?' God wants you to do only that which is reasonable and right. A man in this city said to me: 'I don't know what to do. I don't know what is the right thing for me to do. I'll just throw the whole thing aside.' Men, you know that was unworthy of him—unreasonable.

'God says: 'Come unto me, all ye who are weary and heavy laden, and I will give you rest.' That's what the Master promises you, oh, weary workman, business man and merchant: rest from care, sorrow and trouble. God promises this, and his promises are never broken. You'll never find rest in the infamous saloon; but you will find trouble, sorrow, loss of health, loss of character, loss of self respect, loss of your family, and, worst of all, the loss of your immortal soul.

'Where does the weary babe find rest? Right on its mother's heart, where love, and care, and the cooling lullaby soothes the little darling to rest, sweet rest. Right on God's great heart you can find rest, oh, weary sinner; everlasting rest and an eternity of joy.

'God says: 'He that cometh unto me, I will in nowise cast out. His holy name. Will in nowise cast out. Will not cast you out under any circumstances; will stand by you in every emergency in life; will stand by you and help you and hold you up when even your best earthly friends desert you. Will give you happiness here and happiness in heaven. Something is lacking in your case, sinner. What is it? I'll tell you! I'll tell you! God is waiting for you to get ready; he is waiting for you to decide. Think of it, men. The great and infinite God, condescending to wait upon poor, fallen, sinful, erring, finite man. Surely, God's love and infinite mercy passes all human understanding or conception.

'A poor girl fell by the wayside, seduced by an infamous libertine. Her life was ruined and she wanted to get away from home to hide her shame. Her loving mother told her the latch string would always be out for her return; that the door should never be locked against her; that mother's heart should never be shut against her child. The girl drifted away, and the mother eventually failed to hear from her. Then that mother went down to the great city, hunted up a noble Christian man and told her story; told him how her mother's heart was breaking for her child. And that good man took the poor woman to a photographer's gallery, had a number of pictures of her loving face taken and placed the same where he thought the erring one might possibly catch a glimpse of it, with the appeal written thereon that the latch string was still out, and that mother was longing for her child. One night a poor, forsaken outcast crept into a place to warm at the stove, and as she glanced about the poorly furnished room, her eyes fell upon the picture, and she was down on her knees before it instantly, while out from the burdened heart rang the cry of 'My mother, my mother, my darling mother.' And then the poor girl read the lines of invitation from her mother, and she made her way home, found the door unlocked, the mother's merciful heart wide open for the wanderer, and there was joy unspeakable in that home, and joy in the presence of God. Oh, praise God, men and women, for loving mothers.

'What do I see in this blessed Bible? I see the photograph of the blessed Jesus, and beneath his loving face I see the invitation: 'Come, come, come; oh, sinner, come home. I'm waiting for you. The door is wide open. Whosoever will may come. Come, for everything is ready. Come, come, come. All your sins will be forgiven you; will be wiped out; will be remembered no more against you; will be forgotten; will be wiped out of the book of remembrance. Oh, how I wish I could photograph the wondrous power of God's love to poor sinners and hold it up before them, and then give them the power to comprehend a moiety of its far-reaching depth. Jesus is calling unto you at this moment, poor sinner, and his infinite love can save you just now. Come now, as the 'now' is the only time God promises.'

The audience then bowed their heads in silent prayer, while Weeden sang 'Welcome, wanderer, welcome home.' The after meeting was intensely interesting, many asking for the prayers of God's people. You have an earnest invitation to be present tonight.

Cleaning the Streets.
A force of men are at work today cleaning the crossings and otherwise beautifying the appearance of the streets.

PERSONAL MENTION.

—Doctor Clark is in Hanoverton today on business.

—P. N. McLean, of Glasgow, was in the city yesterday.

—Philip Ward and John Daniels, of Toronto, were in the city last night.

—Harry Cartwright and family returned to their home in Leetonia today.

—Reverend O'Meara and Professor Watters went to Pittsburg on business today.

—Mrs. S. D. Sanor and child went to Homeworth to visit relatives this morning.

—Joseph Deacon and family went to Beaver Falls today to spend a few days with relatives at that place.

—A. R. De Veeney left yesterday for his home in Pittsburg after a few days' visit with Seventh street friends.

—Mrs. J. C. Crawford and three children, of Cannon's Mill, returned home yesterday after several days' visit with Mrs. Daniel Crawford.

—Miss Anna Bell and little niece, Norma Stokesberry, of Signal, Mrs. S. P. Bough, of West Point, and Rev. C. L. V. McKee are in the city, the guests of C. F. Bough.

After the Foreman.

A book agent, a fair young damsel, made a tour of one of the potteries yesterday, and remained in the factory the entire day, trying to dispose of a book that she had for sale. She accosted the foreman, and for two hours she staid right with him. Finally in despair he seized an opportunity to make his escape, and fled. At the mere mention of book agent now, the foreman throws up his hands with a feeling of terror.

Services at Thomas'.

The noon hour services today were conducted at the Thomas pottery by Evangelist Schiverea and Mr. Weeden, assisted by the pastors of the churches. Reverend Schiverea won the confidence of the employees by his earnest, pleading manner, and the meeting will no doubt be productive of much good. A large number were in attendance, many of the people living in that neighborhood being present.

'Perhaps you would not think so, out a very large proportion of diseases in New York comes from carelessness about catching cold,' says Dr. Cyrus Edson. 'It is such a simple thing and so common that very few people, unless it is a case of pneumonia, pay any attention to a cold. There are a great many cases of catarrh and consumption which have their origin in this neglect of the simplest precaution of every day life. The most sensible advice is, when you have one, get rid of it as soon as possible. By all means do not neglect it.' Doctor Edson does not tell you how to cure a cold but we will. Take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It will relieve the lungs, aid expectoration, open the secretions and soon effect a permanent cure. Twenty-five and 50 cent bottles for sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.

Sowing the Wind.

'Sowing the Wind' is to be seen here at the Grand on Saturday night, March 21. After enjoying a long run of crowded houses in London, it was first produced in New York by Charles Frohman, at the Empire theater, with emphatic success, and was played continually for many months. It will be presented here with complete cast, costumes and scenic accessories.

OHIO VALLEY GAS CONSUMERS.

Consumers on the Ohio Valley Gas company lines are hereby notified that hereafter all bills must be paid on or before the 10th of each month, in advance. All consumers being in arrears at this time must settle on or before March 20 or supply will be discontinued.

Dropped the Hat.

While one of the ushers was passing his hat at the rink last night for the evening offering he handed it to a young lady who didn't get a sufficient hold, and it fell to the floor, spilling the money and embarrassing her very much. Matches were lit and the collection gathered up, although it was a difficult matter.

Will Go Camping.

Arrangement are already being made by many of the social clubs in this city to go camping the coming summer. The East Liverpool Athletic club will camp in Michigan, and the majority of the rest have chosen their camping places, which are, in the main, within a radius of 20 miles of this city.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy gives the best satisfaction of any cough medicine I handle, and as a seller leads all other preparations in this market. I recommend it because it is the best medicine I ever handled for coughs, cold and croup. A. W. BALDRIDGE, Millersville, Ill. For sale by A. H. Bulger, druggist.

Under Obligation.

The News Review is under obligations to Manager Gilchrist, of the telephone company, for a very neat head rest for their receiver.

When love knocks at a woman's heart he usually comes in disguise. Doesn't he? That is a question. Women are apt to look upon love and marriage as purely a matter of sentiment and affection. That is pretty nearly right; yet there is a practical side to it too; and the best way to preserve the ideal aspect of marriage and maternity is not to forget the practical part of it. A woman cannot be a thoroughly happy wife and mother unless she has the physical organism of her sex in a healthy and vigorous condition. The best friend that a woman ever had is the 'Favorite Prescription,' of Dr. R. V. Pierce, Chief Consulting Physician of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y. The 'Favorite Prescription' is a perfect and an infallible remedy for every form of 'female weakness.' It cures by restoring health and strength to the internal organism, which cannot be reached by 'local applications,' thus the cure is radical, complete and institutional.

Dr. Pierce's eminent reputation as a physician of wide learning; and his special knowledge of the delicate and intricate ailments of women, accounts for the unparalleled confidence which women place in his 'Favorite Prescription,' over every other remedy. Its use obviates the necessity of dreaded 'examinations' and the stereotyped 'local treatments.'

Dr. R. V. Pierce, Dear Sir—I suffered fourteen years with female weakness, nervousness, and general debility, trying everything I could and to help me—I then heard of Dr. Pierce's medicines and although I was thoroughly discouraged, I thought I would try once more to find relief. I took your Golden Medical Discovery and 'Favorite Prescription,' and too great praise cannot be given for the rapid relief they gave me. I am now free from the former troubles. Very sincerely yours, (Mrs.) Mary J. Stewart.

Who's Gambetta?

'Your improvised chiefs of the national defense are simply so many knights of the pavement' (chevaliers du pave), said Bismarck to Jules Favre at their interview at Ferrieres a fortnight after the fall of the second empire. Bismarck was not absolutely within the truth, though he was very near to it, but in this instance he reflected the feelings of the courts of Europe with regard to the men whom we now complacently term 'the founders of the third republic.' Europe had heard of Jules Favre himself, of Jules Simon, of Gambetta, of Eugene Pelletan (the father of Camille Pelletan), but Gambetta, Picard, Ferry, Glais-Bizoin and a half dozen others, who suddenly professed to pick up the sword that had fallen powerless from the hands of the marshals of France, in order to stem the tide of foreign invasion, they did not know. It is doubtful whether the French themselves, outside of Paris, knew much about their self elected would be saviors.

When on the 6th of September, 1870, Victor Hugo, his son and daughter, Mme. Drouais, and several friends left Brussels for Paris, where the poet expected a triumphal welcome, their train was brought to a stop at Maubeuge by the side of another containing part of Vinoy's army that had escaped the disaster of Sedan. Men and horses were huddled pellmell in cattle trucks, the men silent and depressed, brooding over their unexpected and blatant defeat. Hugo tried to cheer them. He leaned out of his carriage and shouted: 'Vive la France! Vive la republique!' but there was no response, not even when Mme. Drouais told the men who was speaking to them. On the platform, though, just as the train moved once more, a franc tireur waived his kept and yelled: 'Vive la republique! Vive Gambetta!' 'Who's Gambetta? I do not know Gambetta,' remarked the poet to M. Antonin Pronst, who was seated by his side.—Fortnightly Review.

Roads Are Good.

County Commissioner McIntosh drove in from his home in Calcutta this morning and states that the roads between here and that place are in excellent condition, the recent thaw not being sufficient to make the ground soft. He left on the afternoon train for Lisbon.

Is Not a Traveling Man.

George W. Ashbaugh, of the West End pottery, and a candidate for council from the Fourth ward, is not a traveling man, as many would be led to believe, but is at home all the time, and if elected would fill the office to the satisfaction of all.

Found a Dog.

James Mullen, of Eighth street, has a fox terrier that strayed away from some person, and if the owner wishes the return of the animal, and will call for it, the animal will be returned.

Additional Responsibility.

President Al Hughes, of the Potters Brotherhood, is burdened with additional responsibility. A new daughter arrived at his home on Fourth street this morning.

A New Ritual.

The local order of the Sons of St. George have received a new ritual from the supreme lodge and will initiate a new candidate under it tomorrow night.

Received a Fall.

CHEERED THE AMERICAN FLAG.

The Booth-Tuckers Spectacularly Dedicated to Their Work.

LONDON, March 17.—The Salvation Army in London has been in a state of considerable excitement, the occasion being a mass meeting at the Crystal Palace to formally welcome back to England upon his return from his journey around the world General William Booth, the commander-in-chief of the army.

General Booth, in his address to the meeting, referred immediately to the action of the Ballington Booths in America, saying that he had returned to meet one of the heaviest trials he had ever been called upon to face. But even darkness had a silver lining. The American army, he asserted, stood, almost to a man, true to him, and assurances of unceasing devotion had been pouring in from every quarter of the globe.

At the conclusion of General Booth's address, the Booth-Tuckers, who have been commissioned to the command of the army in the United States, were called to the front platform. While standing there two stalwart officers of the army held over them the Stars and Stripes and the Salvation Army blood and fire ensign. The general took each of them by the hand and dedicated them to their new work in America in a few words, which greatly stirred the immense audience of 20,000, all of whom joined in an outburst of cheering for the American flag.

NO BETTER THAN CAMPOS.

Weyler Unable to Suppress Insurgents. Powers Won't Help Spain.

LONDON, March 17.—The Berlin correspondent of The Times says that the Hamburger Correspondent, which is often used as an official mouthpiece, believes that the powers would refuse to intervene in support of Spain in the Cuban fight against the United States. A Madrid dispatch to The Standard says: 'The press and public here express disappointment and impatience at General Weyler's failure to suppress the insurgents, who are still scouring the provinces of Havana, Pinar del Rio and Matanzas and burning plantations, villages, etc., on as extensive a scale as they were doing during General Campos' command.'

Got Rich In Three Weeks.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., March 17.—Three weeks ago John Mackey of West Union paid $2,300 for one-sixteenth interest in the Weekly oil lease. A well which produces 6,000 barrels of oil a day has been drilled on the lease, and Mackey has been offered $25,000 for his interest. The well is the largest producer in the state.

Herbert Booth Will Leave.

RESOLUTION DECLARING IT NECESSARY to improve Jefferson street from the north line of Fifth street to the south line of Sixth street.

Resolved, That in the opinion of the Council of the City of East Liverpool (two-thirds of all the members elected thereto concurring) it is necessary to improve Jefferson street from the north line of Fifth street to the south line of Sixth street, by grading the roadway thereof, resetting the curbs and sidewalks, paving the roadway with hard-burned paving bricks set on their edges, and doing whatever may be found necessary to make a complete job. The work is to be done in accordance with plans and specifications on file in the office of the city engineer, the expense of the same to be assessed per foot front on the property bounding and abutting thereon, according to the law and ordinances on the subject of assessments, the assessments therefor to be paid in five annual installments, if deferred, and the same collected as provided by law and the assessing ordinance hereafter to be passed. Bonds may be issued in anticipation of the collection of the assessments, unless the property owners pay the same when and as the same are assessed, and within the time prescribed in the assessing ordinance, and the clerk is hereby directed to cause the same to be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the corporation for a period of two consecutive weeks, and that the city marshal be authorized to notify the property owners bounding and abutting on said street, between the points above named, and make return as required by law, of the passage of this resolution.

Passed this 10th day of March, 1906.
